

Change to Standing Rules Article 27.

At the General Assembly on June 16th, 2021, the motion regarding "Societies" was passed. With this, the society structure within the UHSK was born. Meanwhile, the first societies have been established. The board has concluded that the functioning of the societies can be optimized, especially regarding joining the societies. To this end, the board is submitting the following amendment to the Standing Rules.

Company structure.

Article 26.

1. A company is a group, acknowledged by the UHSK, with a shared passion.
2. All members of the company ought to be a member of the UHSK.
3. Members can request a company from the board with a minimum of five (5) interested parties.
4. A company is ceremonially established during the General Assembly.
5. Members can join the company over the course of the whole year ~~by making their interest known to the Board.~~ There will be no admission requirements.
6. A company is free to object to an admission to the Board. The Board shall decide whether or not to admit the member.
7. A company has no official functional differentiation.
8. A company has no item on the budget plan.
9. A company can be disbanded by its own members and by the Board. If there are five (5) or more votes from the company concerned against the disbandment, the disbandment will not take place